NEWSCASTER (from TV)

The Battle for the Pirate Radio Stations entered a new phase today when armed men attacked Radio City - transmitting from the old wartime Forts in the Thames Estuary. Although there were no casualties, the rock-group 'Flame' had a narrow escape and had to be air-lifted from the Forts by helicopter. A spokesman for the Ministry of Defence said... (etc.)

The NEWSCASTER's report is backed by footage of the Air-Lift Rescue.

SEYMOUR smiles.

97 INT. TOWN HALL. DAY

97

A large RECEPTION PARTY gathers round to watch BARRY cutting the bottom tier of his spectacular 21st. Birthday Cake, decorated in red icing and supported on pillars of flame. The event has been organised by SOMMERS with full PRESS coverage, and the GUESTS give a resounding cheer as BARRY gives ANGIE a birthday kiss before a battery of flash-guns. Crowd sing 'For He's a Jolly Good Fellow'.

BARRY

It's all Freemans, so get stuck in!

BYSTANDER

Flash bastard!

BARRY turns his head.

ANGIE

So what!!

The rest of the GROUP are present, together with a healthy contingent of RELATIONS, FRIENDS, LOCAL DIGNITARIES and HANGERS-ON.
